

Ameldia Brown, MDiv, BSN, RN

Ameldia Brown, Director of Faith and Community Health for Henry Ford Macomb Hospital, is a pioneer in developing Faith Health Ministry in Michigan. She has been instrumental in developing and contributing to the Foundations for Faith Community Nursing into what it is today. Ameldia also served as Secretary of Health Ministries Association Executive Committee and Board of Directors. Over the years Ameldia assisted with the development of faith community nursing networks in Plano, TX; Omaha, NB and throughout Michigan. Ameldia led in the development of a fully webbased documentation system which several FCN Networks subscribe. This program was developed to capture the cost-saving avoidance outcomes of FCN intervention. Her compassion shines through as an ordained minister, an associate Pastor in her congregation and in serving the un-insured residents of Macomb County, MI. Ameldia is a professional and spiritual Leader who brings charm, wisdom and vision to the faith health movement.
